

KITCHEN STORK

WHO

Foodbank of the Southern Tier
and C.I.D.S Families

WHAT

FLPPS collaborated with Food Bank of the Southern Tier to support the food security and health of pregnant and postpartum mothers and their households through the provision of nutritious food, equipment and materials to prepare foods at home, cooking and nutrition education, case management, and other resources.

WHERE

Chemung County

HOW

Pregnant and postpartum mothers were referred to the Kitchen Stork Program to benefit from care coordination, food box provision, and invitations to nutrition education resources.

ALL SERVICES

- Case Management
- Meal Kits & Groceries
- Referrals to Outside Resources
- Cooking Supplies & Equipment
- Nutrition & Cooking Education
- Recipes & Meal Planning Resources
- Delivery of Prepared Meals
- Starter Kits

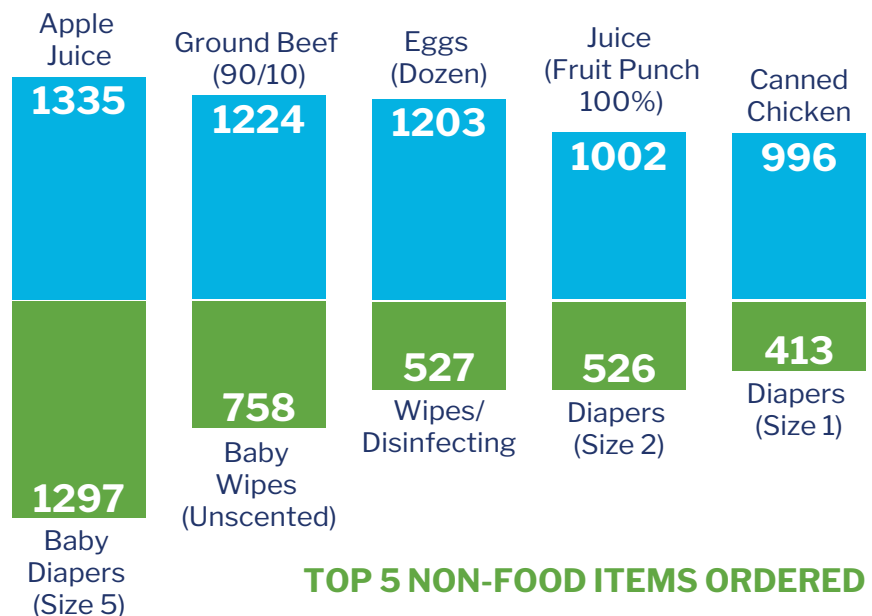

76 Unique Clients

1657 Food Boxes

196 Starter Kits

TOP 5 FOOD ITEMS ORDERED

TOP 5 NON-FOOD ITEMS ORDERED

“ “[I] did not have to worry about going to get food, [or] having food at home.”
-Program Participant

“ [The program] made it a lot easier with groceries and helped relieve stress.”
-Program Participant